Full Circle

A piano recital by Paul Orgel
Saturday, Sept. 21, 7:30PM

Pianist Paul Orgel was the first performer on the first CCC concert in 2000, and he returns to open this landmark 25th season. His masterful program is built upon a famous quote from Busoni, "Bach is the foundation of piano playing, Liszt is the summit. The two make Beethoven possible."

The Music of J.S. Bach

Saturday, Oct. 26, 7:30PM,
Unitarian Church of Montpelier

Sunday, Oct. 27, 4PM,
Cathedral of Saint Paul, Burlington

J.S. Bach's best-loved chamber music and solo works performed by CCC veterans: pianist Jeewon Park, violinist Jeffrey Multer, cellist Edward Arron, and flutist Karen Kevra. Also performing is New York flutist Jillian Reed. Raised in Montpelier, this Gen-Z flutist is dazzling audiences across the Northeast.

Culomba

Saturday, January 25, 3PM

Sophie Michaux and Adam Simon return for our annual pay-as-you can family concert with their remarkable vocal-ensemble Culomba, which draws from a deep musical well: American folk, music of Corsica, the Balkans, and Ukraine. This quintet has traveled and studied with masters of these traditions. That immersion shines in their performances.

Her Favorite Things

Celebrating 3 decades of music-making in Vermont by Karen Kevra
Sunday, March 30, 3PM

CCC founder and Grammy-nominated flutist Karen Kevra, along with pianist Jeffrey Chappell will weave highlights of CCC's history with music of Bach, Louis Moyse, Saint-Saëns, Liszt, and Cécile Chaminade. Join us for celebration cake after the concert!

25th Anniversary Celebration Weekend
